

Please continue with the "Do Not Call Law" . I have elderly parents that are daily bombarded with all kinds of scams such as: "send me three hundred dollars so that you can win two million dollars", types of calls. I come home from work to receive numerous calls and voicemails for everything under the sun. Please, please, please continue this law.